

DEPARTMENT OF FISH, WILDLIFE AND PARKS

ORDER OF THE MONTANA FISH AND GAME COMMISSION ESTABLISHING THE MEDICINE LAKE SANDHILLS SPECIAL MANAGEMENT AREA

By order of the Montana Fish and Game Commission pursuant to agreement with land-owners of hereinafter described lands, under authority vested in it by laws of the state of Montana, in the interest of public health, public safety and protection of property, and to promote public enjoyment of hunting upon these lands, rules are hereby adopted for the use of lands as the Medicine Lake Sandhills Special Management Area.

The Medicine Lake Sandhills Special Management Area is described as those portions of Sheridan County within the following described boundary:

Beginning at the junction of the road demarcating the boundary between Sheridan and Roosevelt Counties and the Dagmar-Sand Creek road, thence along the latter road northerly, easterly then northerly to the Torgerson access road, thence westerly and northerly along said road to the Smith Grade Road, thence westerly along said road to the Medicine Lake National Wildlife Refuge boundary, thence southerly and westerly along said boundary to the junction with the Refuge access road, thence southerly along said road to the Sheridan-Roosevelt Counties boundary road, thence easterly along said road to the Dagmar-Sand Creek road, the point of beginning.

It is further ordered that it shall be unlawful for any person while engaged in hunting during a legally established big game hunting season set by the Fish and Game Commission to:

1. Except upon legal access roads, drive any motorized vehicle into or upon the above designated area from or off the following specified roads:
 - a. All boundary roads (see attached map of Special Management Area).
2. Drive a vehicle beyond a point posted against such travel.
3. Discharge a firearm within 1/4 mile of an occupied building.
4. Construct an open fire.

EXCEPTIONS: Landowners in the course of ranch administrative work and federal, state, and county officials in the course of their official duties will be exempt from these regulations.
